Charles Ostroumoff, MRICS

Courses delivered for RICS Executive Education

- Strategic Finance Masterclass

Charles started his career as a Business Consultant with KPMG working with large blue chip companies before moving into property finance and investment.

In 2008 Charles was employed as a consultant with the Eurex Exchange to introduce real estate as an asset class and develop products for real estate practitioners, launching IPD Property Futures in 2009. Subsequently Charles worked as a broker of financial products linked to the performance of real estate at BGC Partners (owner of Newmark Grubb Knight Frank), and as a derivatives consultant at Credit Suisse on their regulatory change programme.

In 2013, Charles set up Arca Property Risk Management where he is pioneering solutions for property fund managers to manage property "market risk" using IPD Futures to reweight or rebalance their property portfolios in real time.

Charles is a member of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors, the Society of Property Researchers and the Investment Property Forum. He studied Economics and Politics at Exeter University and has an MSc in Real Estate Investment from CASS Business School. He is a Chartered Surveyor and a CF30 with the FCA, and regularly writes articles for industry journals and speaks at industry events.
