Course summary

Building on the knowledge learned from the MSP[®] Foundation qualification, this course brings your skills in programme management to a more advanced level and focuses on the application of best practice programme management techniques, so that you are able to deliver large scale programmes successfully.

Who is this course for?

If you are managing projects within the built environment and have foundation MSP knowledge, then this course will support you in managing transformational change. If you are seeking a professionally recognised qualification, becoming MSP[®] Practitioner trained will substantiate your level of programme management benchmarked against industry standards.

To successfully complete this course, we recommend that you have prior knowledge of the Managing Successful Programmes framework. Otherwise we recommend that you first complete the [MSP[®] Foundation](#) course before attempting this course.

Learning outcomes

- Identify additional value as a result of managing the described change as an MSP programme
- Explain and apply each of the MSP principles, the governance themes and the transformational flow processes and their activities
- Clarify the relationship between the MSP principles, governance themes, the transformational flow, programme information [documents] and the MSP defined programme management roles
- Produce and evaluate examples of MSP programme information [documents]
